

A ROCHA

Christians in Conservation

www.arocha.ca

A Rocha is an international conservation organization working to show God's love for all creation. The name A Rocha is Portuguese and means 'the Rock'.

We work out our commitment to environmental action through community-based conservation projects.

A Rocha has five distinct characteristics:

- Christian
- Conservation
- Community
- Cross-Cultural
- Co-operation

The A Rocha Field Study Centre in South Surrey is the 'living classroom' where volunteers, student interns, and visitors are welcomed to participate in fieldwork-based science, practical conservation, and environmental education for children and adults.

A Rocha has school programs and hosts many annual community events with other organizations including the City of Surrey, Birds on the Bay, Kidsworld and the White Rock Museum.

Over 6,000 children have participated in A Rocha programs, being introduced to the wonders of the natural world and encouraged to act to preserve it.
